Homophones 3

Homophones are words with the same pronunciation but different meanings.
For example: flour   and   flower

Choose the correct homophone to complete each of the following sentences.

1. "What a _____ job you've done," remarked Ms Jones.   great / grate

2. The congregation stood and sung a _____.   hymn / him

3. You can't possible eat that _____ piece of cake!   hole / whole

4. A message in a bottle washed up on the _____.   shore / sure

5. The _____ on Tilly's skirt needed mending.   seem / seam

6. The owner had to _____ her dog at the vet.   way / weigh

7. There is only one _____ until camp.   weak / week

8. _____ of the children are listening to the teacher.   none / nun

9. The _____ was tired after a long day of work.   maid / made

10. A _____ is jumping through the field.   hare / hair

Write the homophone for each word. Draw a picture to match the new word.

Homophone	Draw	Homophone	Draw
pour _____		night _____

Homophones 3 Answers

Homophones are words with the same pronunciation but different meanings.
For example: flour   and   flower

Choose the correct homophone to complete each of the following sentences.

1. "What a great job you've done," remarked Ms Jones.

   great / grate

2. The congregation stood and sung a hymn.

   hymn / him

3. You can't possible eat that whole piece of cake!

   hole / whole

4. A message in a bottle washed up on the shore.

   shore / sure

5. The seam on Tilly's skirt needed mending.

   seem / seam

6. The owner had to weigh her dog at the vet.

   way / weigh

7. There is only one week until camp.

   weak / week

8. None of the children are listening to the teacher.

   none / nun

9. The maid was tired after a long day of work.

   maid / made

10. A hare is jumping through the field.

    hare / hair

Write the homophone for each word. Draw a picture to match the new word.

Homophone	Draw	Homophone	Draw
pour poor		night knight	